GAS METRES .- MR. DUNNINGTON'S BILL .- AS the subject of providing by law for a proper inspection and sealing of gas metres has been mooted in our City Councils, and as many persons, consumers of gas, feel an interest in aught pertaining to the subject of gas consumption, we give below an abstract of the provisions of "an act to provide for the inspection and sealing of gas metres in the city of Washington," which was introduced on Monday night last in the Board of Aldermen by Alderman Dunnington, and passed by the Board.

The first section provides that on or about the first Monday in June next, the Mayor, by and with the consent of the Board of Aldermen, shall appoint a suitable, experienced, and competent citizen of Washington, who must not be a stockholder or employee of any gas company, inspector and sealer of gas metres; also provides that said duties of his office, give proper bond, with secarity, for a faithful discharge of his duties, and take an oath in accordance therewith

Section second enacts that it shall be his duty, when required in writing and on the prepayment of a fee hereinafter specified, to inspect, examine, test, prove, and ascertain the accuracy of registration of any and all gas metres used or intended to be used for measuring or determining the quantity of carburetted hydrogen or illuminating gas consumed by any metre or metres in this city, and when found to be correct, within the meaning of this act, to seal, stamp, or mark all such metres, and each of them, with some appropriate, distinct and intelligent device.

Section third makes it the duty of the Gas Light Company to keep near its office a suitable and accurate "Metre Prover" or "Testing Gas-Holder," for proving and testing the accuracy of registration of the gas metres used in this city, and by which all metres shall be proved and tested, at the written request of any consumer, for a fee of fifty cents, which may be required in advance by the inspector and sealer, for every metre removed from the premises, proved, tested, in-spected, sealed, and replaced; and, in case any metre on being thus tested shall be found to register inaccurately as defined by this section, to the injury of the consumer, the fee of fifty cents shall be returned to the person applying for the inspection, and shall be paid to the inspector and sealer by the Gas Light Company, as a remuneration for the removal, inspection, and replacing of such meter. Every meter thus tested, shall be deemed correct, and sealed accordingly, which shall register quantities varying from the standard measure of gas of not more than two per centum in favor of the Company, or three per centum in favor of the consumers.

The fourth section provides that no new metre shall be furnished or put in use in this city which shall not have been previously proved to be correct and seiled as such by the inspector and sealer, except the office at any time be vacant, or the inspector, after proper request made, shall refuse or neglect to prove, and, if correct, seal the metres furnished at his office by the Gas Light Company for that purpose. For proving and sealing of all new metres furnished by the Gas Light Company, they shall pay the inspector a fee of 25 cents each for every metre so inspected and sealed.

The fifth section provides that the inspector shall keep a book in which he shall record the date of testing, number, size, name of manufacturer, and registration of every metre inspected by him. This section also provides that the inspector and sealer shall receive an annual salary of $150 in addition to his regular fees.

THE CELEBRATION AT THE SMITHSONIAN LAST NIGHT.—There was a large attendance at the anniversary celebration of the Enosinian and Philophrenian Societies of Columbian College at the Smithsonian last evening. Seated on the platform was the President of the United States, also Secretary Cass. Senators Foote and Doolittle, Hon. Mr. McRae, of Miss., Hon. J. L. M. Curry, of Ala., Rev. Thomas H. Stockton, Dr. Samson, and

After a fervent prayer from the Rev. Mr. Stockton, Chaplain of the House of Representatives, the President of the Philophrenian Society introduced the Rev. Byron Sunderland, D D., who delivered an interesting and humorous poem, entitled "Mistakes will Happen."

Mr. Curry followed in an able and eloquent address, on "Individual Responsibility," which elicited frequent applause from the audience He deprecated the growing indisposition everywhere exhibited of personal responsibility. If it be proposed to advance some proof, or to foster some feeling, men formed an association. In democratic countries associations in many cases were necessary, because they accomplished what elsewhere devolved upon the State, and men of rank. Associated effort was a powerful instrumentality for accomplishing what unassociated effort could not do; its influence and effect were salutary only when confined to legitimate objects. The extent however, to which association had been pushed created a tendency to merge and absorb, rather than develop the individual man. There was too little reliance upon personal will and knowledge. All questions demanded personal effort of some kind; but there existed a disposition to shift responsibility, and throw off personal burdens. This was opposed to that integrity of character and freedom of conscience and manly self-reliance so imperatively demanded in public and private stations. All associations were not followed by such consequences, but such was generally the re-3 ilt. Everyone should hold his own individual ty inviolate; and in maintaining his own, he must by consequence respect that of another. No systent of government, no state of society, no educatien, no public sentiment, no religion, could be correct without individual independence-without the development of the inner man. The Christian religion was in direct antagonism with the error of which he spoke. Of all systems of truth, it was the most individualizing. To a great extent the old dispensation dealt with nationality; the new with personal conversion, with individual life. The world was to be converted not by thousands, not by nations; but by individuals. The Gospel of Christ was the great elevator. It was preached to the poor, and its promises and admonitions were addressed to all alike, and distinctions of rank had no preference. Individuality did not conflict with the import ance and necessity of co-operation, of organized effort; on the contrary, it sustained and rendered such more efficient, as the whole was made up of parts, and the effect of the whole was proportionate to the activity and energy of each part.

CALLS FOR THE WATCH .- Last night, at a late hour, cries of "Murder! watch! watch!" were heard in the vicinity of Thirteenth-and-a-half | Sold also by S. Calvert Ford, jr., Washington, and D streets, in the Second Ward. What the D. C. cause was has not been ascertained, unless the matter was one which will not bear unfolding. The patter of feet on the sidewalks indicated a great hurry in the movements of some one, and the footfalls was not quite so heavy as to induce a belief that the guards had joined in the chase. We have heard several inquiries relative to the occurrence, but no one appears to be able to solve the mystery.

ACCIDENT TO THE LONG BRIDGE .- The day before yesterday the steam tug, Tempest, was towing two schooners up through the south draw of the Long Bridge, when, (the current being very strong,) as the forward schooner was passing through, she was slewed round by the force of the current, and, refusing to answer her rudder, ran foul of the draw, knocking it some ten feet out of place. The schooner's bowsprit was rainmed through the wheel-house and carried away, together with her figure-head and cut-water. It is thought that the necessary repairs will be made to permit of the resumption of travel over the bridge (which has been suspended since the accident) by to-morrow night.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

IF Read the following letter from Caleb Parker, Esq., of Concord, N. H., a man honored and esteemed by all who know him:

Gentlemen—With no disposition to make my name conspicuous I take the opportunity to state to the afflicted the benefit I have derived from the use of Dr. Green's Oxygenated Bitters, and to recommend them to others. For two years I have been troubled with indigestion and its attendant evils, such as flatulency, constination, severe attacks of duar as flatulency, constipation, severe attacks of diar rhoa, accompanied with water brashat the stomach, which reduced me in flesh, strength and spirits, so low that I was nearly unfitted for business. I applied to several physicians from whom I obtained only temporary relief, I concluded, with the advice of friends, but without the least faith in their efficacy, to try the oxygenated Bitters, from the use of which I found immediate relief, having no return of water brash after taking the first portion.

Yours respectfully, CALEB PARKER.
